Agenda item 10

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION IN THE FIELD OF INFORMATICS

Report of the First (Economic) Committee

1. The First (Economic) Committee considered the question of international cooperation in the field of informatics (agenda item 10) at its 12th, 17th and 18th meetings, on 18 and 24 July 1991. It had before it the note by the Secretary-General on international cooperation in the field of informatics (E/1991/104).

2. At its 12th meeting, on 18 July, the Committee held a general discussion on the item. It heard an introductory statement by the Director of the Division of International Organizations of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

3. Also at the 12th meeting, statements were made by the representatives of the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic, Pakistan and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

The need to harmonize and improve United Nations informatics systems for optimal utilization and accessibility by all States

4. At the 17th meeting, on 24 July, the representative of Pakistan, on behalf of Algeria, Colombia, 1/ Indonesia, the Islamic Republic of Iran, Kenya, Madagascar, 1/ Malaysia, Nigeria, 1/ Pakistan, Peru, Romania, Saudi Arabia, 1/ Sri Lanka, 1/ Swaziland, 1/ Turkey, the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics,

1/ In accordance with rule 72 of the rules of procedure of the Economic and Social Council.

the United Republic of Tanzania, 1/ Viet Nam 1/ and Zaire, introduced a draft resolution (E/1991/C.1/L.13/Rev.1) entitled "The need to standardize and improve United Nations informatics systems for optimal utilization and accessibility by Member States". Subsequently, Bangladesh, 1/ Bhutan, 1/ France, Italy, Morocco, Nepal, 1/ Senegal, 1/ the Syrian Arab Republic, Tunisia, Uganda 1/ and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland joined in sponsoring the draft resolution.

5. At the 18th meeting, on 24 July, the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Ahmed Amaziane (Morocco), read out the following revisions which had been agreed upon during informal consultations:

(a) In the title, the word "standardize" was replaced by the word "harmonize" and the words "Member States" were replaced by the words "all States";

(b) In the second preambular paragraph, the words "and observers" were inserted after the words "States Members";

(c) In the third preambular paragraph, the word "Member" was deleted before the word "States";

(d) In the fourth preambular paragraph, the words "Member States" were replaced by the words "all States";

(e) A new fifth preambular paragraph was inserted, which read as follows:

"Bearing in mind the ongoing discussions on the reform of the General Assembly,";

(f) In the operative paragraph, the word "Member" was deleted before the word "States".

6. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution E/1991/C.1/L.13/Rev.1, as orally revised (see para. 14 below, draft resolution I).

7. Before the draft resolution was adopted, statements were made by the representative of the United States of America and the observer for Uganda, as well as by the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Amaziane (Morocco).

International cooperation in the field of informatics

8. At the 17th meeting, on 24 July, the observer for Ghana, 1/ on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77, introduced a draft resolution (E/1991/C.1/L.19) entitled "International cooperation in the field of informatics".

9. At the 18th meeting, on 24 July, the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Amaziane (Morocco), informed the Committee of the results of the informal consultations held on the draft resolution and stated that it was the Committee's understanding that the report requested in operative paragraph 4 of draft resolution E/1991/C.1/L.19 would be submitted as part of a single report together with the information requested in the operative paragraph of draft resolution E/1991/C.1/L.13/Rev.1.

10. At the same meeting, statements were made by the representatives of the Netherlands (on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the European Community) and the United States of America, as well as by the representative of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

11. The representative of the Netherlands, on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the European Community, then proposed the following amendments to the draft resolution:

(a) In operative paragraph 1, the words "the strengthening" were replaced by the words "a more effective use";

(b) In operative paragraph 2, the words "to continue" were inserted before the words "to reinforce".

12. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution E/1991/C.1/L.19, as orally amended (see para. 14 below, draft resolution II).

13. Before the draft resolution was adopted, the representative of Ghana made a statement on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE FIRST (ECONOMIC) COMMITTEE

14. The First (Economic) Committee recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

DRAFT RESOLUTION I

The need to harmonize and improve United Nations informatics systems for optimal utilization and accessibility by all States

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting the vital importance of informatics in promoting and accelerating development,

Considering it imperative that States Members of the United Nations and observers have easy, economical, uncomplicated and unhindered access to the growing computerized databases and information systems and services of the United Nations,

Regretting that lack of the above conditions in existing United Nations informatics systems limits such access by States at the present time,

Stressing the need for representatives of all States to be actively associated with United Nations bodies, such as the International Computing Centre, dealing with informatics within the United Nations system,

Bearing in mind the ongoing discussions on the reform of the General Assembly,

Requests the Secretary-General to prepare, within existing resources and in consultation with representatives of States, a study analysing the causes of the present situation with respect to United Nations informatics systems and providing an outline of a rapid solution to the problem, leading to easier, economical, uncomplicated and unhindered access to United Nations computerized databases and information systems and services, which are of great importance to all States, in particular to the developing countries, and to report thereon to the Council at its regular session of 1992.

DRAFT RESOLUTION II

International cooperation in the field of informatics

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its decision 1989/179 of 27 July 1989, its resolution 1990/58 of 26 July 1990 and decision 7.1 adopted by the Executive Board of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization at its one hundred and thirty-first session, 2/

Taking note of the report on international cooperation in the field of informatics prepared by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, 3/

Considering the existing disparities in the level of development of informatics between the developed and developing countries,

Reaffirming the importance of the development of informatics as an instrument of international cooperation and endogenous development,

1. Recommends a more effective use of the existing coordinating mechanisms, with a view to regular consultations and coordination concerning informatics within the United Nations system, including consultations and coordination between the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, through its Intergovernmental Informatics Programme, the International Telecommunication Union and the United Nations Industrial Development Organization;

2. Invites the above-mentioned organizations to continue to reinforce their subprogrammes concerning international cooperation and regional strategies in informatics in developing countries, in particular the Informafrica project of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization;

3. Invites Member States to encourage and promote activities to expand the endogenous skills of their population in the field of informatics, and calls upon donor countries to make voluntary contributions to the Intergovernmental Informatics Programme of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, with a view to strengthening its ability to provide appropriate support for projects in the field of informatics for the benefit of developing countries;

4. Decides to keep this issue under review and to examine it at its regular session of 1992, and requests the Secretary-General to submit to it at that session a report on the implementation of the present resolution.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE THIRD (PROGRAMME AND COORDINATION) COMMITTEE

23. The Third (Programme and Coordination) Committee recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

DRAFT RESOLUTION I

Revision of the General Regulations of the World Food Programme and membership of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes of the World Food Programme

The Economic and Social Council,

Recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 1714 (XVI), 2095 (XX) and 3404 (XXX) concerning the establishment and continuance of the United Nations/FAO World Food Programme,

"Recalling further its decision 44/414 of 22 November 1989, its resolution 45/218 of 22 December 1990, and the Economic and Social Council resolution 1990/79 of 27 July 1990 relating to the review of the governance of the World Food Programme,

"Having considered the decision adopted by the Economic and Social Council pursuant to the recommendation of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes of the World Food Programme concerning the governance of the Programme and its relationship with the United Nations and the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,

"1. Decides, subject to the concurrence of the Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, that the membership of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes shall be increased from 30 to 42 by the addition of 12 States Members of the United Nations or States members of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, and that the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization shall elect six additional members each;

"2. Decides, taking into account the membership criteria laid down in General Assembly resolution 3404 (XXX), that members of the enlarged Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes shall comprise 27 members from developing countries and 15 from more economically developed countries, to be elected from the States listed in appendix A to the report of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes on its special session 2/ and in accordance with the following distribution of seats:

"(a) Eleven from the States in List A of appendix A, five States to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and six States by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization;

"(b) Nine from the States in List B of appendix A, four States to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and five States by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization; 3/

2/ See E/1991/69.

3/ For this purpose, the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization will each elect one Member from Group I and three Members from Group II. In addition, the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization will elect one other Member from Groups I and II by rotation.

"(c) Seven from the States in List C of appendix A, four States to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and three States by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization;

"(d) Thirteen from the States in List D of appendix A, seven States to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and six States by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization;

"(e) Two from the States in List E of appendix A, one State to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and one State by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization;

"3. Requests the Economic and Social Council, at its organizational session for 1992, to elect six additional members of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes, the six additional members to be elected in accordance with the following distribution and terms of office:

"(a) Two members from the States in List A of appendix A, one for a term of three years and one for a term of one year;

"(b) Two members from the States in List B of appendix A, one for a term of three years and one for a term of two years;

"(c) Two members from the States in List C of appendix A, one for a term of two years and one for a term of one year;

"4. Requests that, thereafter, the Economic and Social Council elect, for a term of three years, all members of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes for whose election it is responsible;

"5. Decides to approve the Revised General Regulations for the World Food Programme contained in appendix B to the report of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes on its special session, 2/ as endorsed by the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1991 and by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization at the 18th plenary meeting of its ninety-ninth session, on 20 June 1991;

"6. Decides, subject to the concurrence of the FAO Conference, that the Revised General Regulations shall come into force on 1 January 1992.

DRAFT RESOLUTION II

Target for World Food Programme pledges for the period 1993-1994

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting the comments of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes, concerning the minimum target for voluntary contributions to the Programme for the period 1993-1994, 4/

4/ See E/1991/69.

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 2462 (XXIII) of 20 December 1968 and 2682 (XXV) of 11 December 1970, in which the General Assembly recognized the experience gained by the World Food Programme in the field of multilateral food aid,

1. Recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the draft resolution annexed to the present resolution;

2. Urges States Members of the United Nations and members and associate members of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations to undertake the necessary preparations for the announcement of pledges at the Fifteenth Pledging Conference for the World Food Programme.

ANNEX

Target for World Food Programme pledges for the period 1993-1994

The General Assembly,

Recalling the provisions of its resolution 2095 (XX) of 20 December 1965 to the effect that the World Food Programme is to be reviewed before each pledging conference,

Noting that the Programme was reviewed by the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes of the World Food Programme at its thirty-first session and by the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1991,

Having considered the resolution adopted by the Economic and Social Council and the recommendations of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes,

Recognizing the value of and continuing need for multilateral food aid as provided by the World Food Programme since its inception, both as a form of capital investment and for meeting emergency food needs,

1. Establishes for the period 1993-1994 a target for voluntary contributions to the World Food Programme of $1.5 billion, of which not less than one third should be in cash and/or services, and expresses the hope that such resources will be substantially augmented by additional contributions from other sources in view of the prospective volume of sound project requests and the capacity of the Programme to operate at a higher level;

2. Urges States Members of the United Nations and members and associate members of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and appropriate donor organizations to make every effort to ensure that the target is fully attained;

3. Requests the Secretary-General, in cooperation with the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization, to convene a pledging conference for this purpose at United Nations Headquarters in 1992.

24. The Third (Programme and Coordination) Committee recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft decisions:

DRAFT DECISION I

Summary of the Chairman of the Third (Programme and Coordination) Committee on operational activities for development

The Economic and Social Council decides to annex to its report submitted to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session the text of the summary of the Chairman of the Third (Programme and Coordination) Committee on the general discussion on operational activities for development.

DRAFT DECISION II

Efficiency of programming

The Economic and Social Council endorses decision 91/31 of 25 June 1991 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme, 5/ in which the Governing Council requested the Administrator, within the mandate of the United Nations Development Programme and in consultation with the Director-General for Development and International Economic Cooperation, to provide an analytical report to the Governing Council at its fortieth session, in 1993, to identify, in coordination with Governments and taking into account their development priorities on the basis of information to be provided by the recipient countries and multilateral development institutions, those specific activities and services in which the Programme has proved to be most effective in achieving development goals, recognizing the particularities of each country.

DRAFT DECISION III

Revision of the General Regulations of the World Food Programme

The Economic and Social Council, having considered the report of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes on the work of its first special session, 6/ decides to endorse the revised General Regulations of the World Food Programme contained in appendix B to the report and to transmit them, together with the draft resolution contained in annex II to that report, to the General Assembly for final approval.

5/ See E/1991/L.27; for the final text, see Official records of the Economic and Social Council, 1991, Supplement No. 13 (E/1991/34).

6/ E/1991/69.

DRAFT DECISION IV

Documents considered by the Economic and Social Council in connection with the question of operational activities for development

The Economic and Social Council takes note of the following documents:

(a) Report of the Director-General for Development and International Economic Cooperation on the operational activities of the United Nations system; 7/

(b) Extract from the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme on its organizational meeting for 1991, its special session and its thirty-eighth session; 8/

(c) Report of the High-level Committee on the Review of Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries on its seventh session; 9/

(d) Report of the Secretary-General on the participation of the United Nations in the review of the governance arrangements of the World Food Programme; 10/

(e) Report of the Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund. 11/
